

Dr. Howard Culbertson, “Making Disciples in All Nations”

Bio-

Dr. Howard Culbertson spent 25 years as missionary-in-residence at Southern Nazarene University.

The Culbertsons served for almost a decade in Europe. Most of that time they lived in Florence, Italy. In 1984 they went to the Caribbean. Dr. Culbertson became mission director in Haiti.

He graduated from Southern Nazarene University and Nazarene Theological Seminary. In 1986, while a missionary, he completed a doctorate in missions at Denver Seminary.

At SNU Dr. Culbertson taught missions, including courses in anthropology, linguistics, the expansion of Christianity and world religions. Dr. Culbertson's most recent books are Giving That Transforms and Discovering Missions.

Website-

<http://home.snu.edu/~hculbert/personal.htm>

Publications-

<https://home.snu.edu/~hculbert/books.htm>